ASSISTANCE APPRECIATED:

On Sunday, August 5th, following fellowship, Deacon and I would appreciate help in setting up for the iconography workshop, stacking the red chairs into the closet area and setting up extra tables, bringing upstairs the large dehumidifier, etc.

The workshop, which lasts the week of Aug. 6-11 will occupy the fellowship hall. If you arrive for other purposes, please do not disturb the students who work in quiet prayer nor disturb the work and supplies left on the tables overnight and in the kitchen.

Lawn maintenance: If possible, please skip mowing from Monday morning through Saturday until late afternoon that week.

The iconography guild will not be meeting Saturday, Aug. 4th.

Please pray for us that week!

“If you see your neighbor in sin, don’t look only at this, but also think about what he has done or does that is good, and infrequently trying this in general, while not partially judging, you will find that he is better than you.”

— St. Basil the Great, Conversations, 20

“Let everything take second place to our care of our children, our bringing them up to the discipline and instruction of the Lord. If from the beginning we teach them to love true wisdom, they will have great wealth and glory than riches can provide. If a child learns a trade, or is highly educated for a lucrative profession, all this is nothing compared to the art of detachment from riches; if you want to make your child rich, teach him this. He is truly rich who does not desire great possessions, or surround himself with wealth, but who requires nothing...Don’t think that only monks need to learn the Bible; Children about to go out into the world stand in greater need of Scriptural knowledge.”

+ St. John Chrysostom, Homilies on Ephesians, Homily 21
